

HARLYN SURF SCHOOL

Coronavirus: Client Assumption of Risks, Exclusion of Liabilities and Health Declaration

As you'd expect, we take your health and welfare, and that of our instructors and other staff, very seriously. If within 14 days prior to your session you or your party have any symptoms you must inform us right away. This may result in cancellation of your session.

Harlyn Surf School and its associated instructors, and other staff will not be liable in any way for any losses, damage or other claims whatsoever arising from the contracting of COVID-19 whilst engaging in any of our activities and/or sessions and/or hiring of our kit

You and/or your party

- 1 | Acknowledge, understand and accept that it is not possible to mitigate [entirely] against the risk of contraction of COVID-19;
- 2 | Acknowledge, understand and accept that participation in your session or hire of kit may expose you to a risk of contraction of COVID-19;
- 3 | Acknowledge, consent and agree for all purposes to the above disclaimer and exclusion of liabilities and related claims and accordingly waive, release and discharge us for all purposes from any (potential) claims and liabilities against us due to any COVID-19 Coronavirus circumstance which might occur by virtue of your participation in your session.

Should you and/or any of your party suspect that you may have contracted and/or been exposed to COVID-19 or begin to display any signs or symptoms suggestive of COVID-19 (however mild) and/or if you are responsible for assisting a person classed in any way as vulnerable for COVID-19 purposes, we respectfully ask you not to book or attend at this time. There will be other opportunities to get you on the water!

When making a booking you and/or your party also declare for all purposes that you acknowledge, understand and confirm as follows (and having noted the above disclaimer):

- 1 | At the time of booking you and/or your party are not awaiting a test or test result for COVID- 19; If in the near future this arises 14 days prior to your session you must inform us.
- 2 | You and/or the party at the time of booking are not and have not within the 14 days prior to your session displayed signs or symptoms of the above virus.
- 3 | You and/or the party you are booking for have not within the 14 days prior to your first session had contact with those displaying signs or symptoms of

HARLYN SURF SCHOOL

COVID-19 and/or anyone undertaking self-isolation for COVID-19 14 days prior to your session.

4 | You and/or your party that you are booking for are aware that engagement in this activity may increase your risks of contracting COVID-19;

5 | You and/or your party will adhere to social distancing before, during and after the session;

6 | You and/or your party are aware, should the need arise, that you are responsible for your own self rescue and that should you or your party require assistance your instructor may have to break the 2m social distancing rule.

When making a booking online these will be the terms you will be agreeing to along with our standard terms and conditions
